IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF SEBASTIAN COUNTY, ARKANSAS

TWELFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

IN RE: ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER:
AMENDED ADMINISTRATIVE PLAN
FOR THE ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

Whereas the circuit judges of the twelfth judicial district submitted a modified case assignment plan to the Arkansas Supreme Court on November 24, 2008, providing for the assignment of in the twelfth judicial district which was approved by the Arkansas Supreme Court; and

Whereas it is the desire of the circuit judges in the twelfth judicial district to have the Sebastian County Circuit Clerk continue to assign cases to the various circuit judges in the district according to the modified plan with the sole additional modification that one third of the dependancy and neglect cases will be assigned to division III;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED NUNC PRO TUNC that commencing January 1, 2009 the Sebastian County Circuit Clerk (hereinafter circuit clerk) shall randomly assign cases to the various divisions as set out below;

Division I (Judge Stephen Tabor): Thirty-three percent of criminal cases, fifty percent of drug court cases, and thirty-three percent of civil cases.

Division II (Judge Harry Foltz): Fifty percent of the domestic relations cases and forty-five percent of probate cases.

Division III (Judge Jim Spears): Fifty percent of the domestic relations cases; forty-five percent of probate cases; and thirty-three percent of the dependency - neglect cases.

Division IV (Judge Mark Hewett): Sixty-seven percent of all dependency-neglect cases and all other juvenile cases.

Division V (Judge J. Michael Fitzhugh): Thirty-three percent of the criminal cases, fifty percent of drug court cases, and thirty-three percent of civil cases.

Division VI (Judge James O. Cox): Thirty-four percent of criminal cases other than drug court cases, thirty-four percent of civil cases, and 10 percent of probate cases.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 26th day of June 2009.

Stephen Tabor
Circuit Judge, Division I

Mark Hewett
Circuit Judge, Division IV

Harry A. Foltz
Circuit Judge, Division II
Administrative Judge

J. Michael Fitzhugh
Circuit Judge, Division V

Jim D. Spears
Circuit Judge, Division III

James O. Cox
Circuit Judge, Division VI