Arkansas Legal Forms:
Sources of Information

This guide lists sources of information for locating Arkansas legal form, both print and electronic. The Arkansas Supreme Court Library is prohibited from giving legal advice; legal advice includes recommending forms for a particular legal use. An attorney should be consulted for legal advice regarding which legal form should be used for a particular purpose.

Arkansas Form Book (www.lexisnexis.com)

The Arkansas Form Book, published in print and electronic formats by the Arkansas Bar Association, has served as the standard source of Arkansas legal forms to consult for legal forms not found on the Arkansas Judiciary website. The print version, last published in 2004 (two three-ring binders) is available for use in the Arkansas Supreme Court Library. The online version, which requires an I.D. and password, is available for in-person use at the Arkansas Supreme Court Library, via the library's LexisNexis subscription. The Arkansas Bar Association is currently developing a new legal form product called Hot Docs, to be accessed online via its website.

Arkansas Judiciary: Court Forms (https://courts.arkansas.gov/forms-and-publications)

The Court Forms web page on the Arkansas Judiciary website is an online source for selected court-sanctioned forms. Legal forms are organized under "Appellate Courts" and "Circuit Courts," with subdivisions for Circuit Court forms, such as "Civil," "Criminal," "Domestic Relations," "Juvenile," and "Probate." Also listed are "Jury-Related" forms and "Process Server" forms, as well as a Model Appellant's Brief.

Arkansas Legal Forms (http://www.library.arkansas.gov/)

Thomson Gale's Arkansas Legal Forms, an online database of legal forms, is available to state employees via the Online Databases web page on the Arkansas State Library's website. Online access requires a library card number. The Arkansas Legal Forms database contains numerous forms not found in the Arkansas Bar Association's Arkansas Form Book -- such as redacted samples of court forms filed on the circuit court level. The Arkansas Legal Forms database is available for in-person use at the Arkansas Supreme Court Library.

Arkansas Legal Services Partnership (http://www.arlegalservices.org/)

The Arkansas Legal Services Partnership, a statewide collaboration between Legal Aid of Arkansas and the Center for Arkansas Legal Services, provides free legal services to low-income Arkansans in noncriminal cases. The centerpiece of those legal services is an online Legal Library available via the Arkansas Legal Services Partnership website. The Legal Library is an excellent source of free legal information, providing online access to concise fact sheets and interactive self-help legal forms, by legal topic.
