

ARKANSAS SUPREME COURT
EMPLOYMENT NOTICE

Applications are now being accepted for the position of Assistant Criminal Coordinator in the office of the Criminal Justice Coordinator. Applicants must hold an Arkansas law license and be in good standing. Compensation is $47,646 to $50,580 per year, depending on experience. Duties include research in criminal law, primarily in the area State post-conviction remedies, and drafting detailed memoranda. The staff attorney is eligible for State benefits and cannot be employed in any other position while in the employ of the Arkansas Supreme Court without approval of the court.

An English or writing background is desirable. A demonstration of excellent legal writing skills is essential. A familiarity with Corel Word Perfect 11 is helpful as secretarial assistance is very limited. Applications must be received by October 23, 2009, and should be addressed to Sue Newbery, Justice Building, Suite 1300, 625 Marshall St., Little Rock, AR 72201. A resume with cover letter and sample of legal writing are required. Interviews will be conducted with selected applicants, and final candidates may be subject to testing of research and analysis skills.
