To schedule your group to tour the Justice Building and/or attend an oral argument:

1. Check the calendar [2] to choose a date. The Court of Appeals reserves the courtroom for arguments at 9 a.m. on Wednesday mornings and the Supreme Court at 9 a.m. on Thursday mornings. Oral arguments are typically one hour in length.
2. To schedule a guided visit (minimum of 5 guests) to the Justice Building, please complete our Request Form [3].
3. Once your tour is scheduled, please review the Guide to Oral Arguments [4], which explains both the rules of the courtroom and the oral argument process.
4. The briefs of the case will be emailed to you a few days in advance so you can learn the Facts of the Case?the evidence that was heard and decisions made in the circuit court [5].

If you are unable to attend arguments in person, all arguments are streamed live from our website. Past arguments are archived here[6].
