Going Digital

The Administrative Office of the Courts will eliminate the paper version of Friends of the Court and go to an online only format this summer. This will allow room for regular content, more diverse court-related news, and more features on you, the people who do the work of the Judicial Branch.

Starting with this issue, an electronic version of the newsletter will be published on the Judiciary website:

The AOC has created a survey to measure the attitudes of our readers regarding the change to a digital format. If you haven't taken the survey, we strongly encourage you to do so. It can be found at:
