Rule 6. Meetings Open To Public €: Legal Action.

All inquiries and Complaints which proceed to hearing(s) before this Committee shall be open to the public and the news media. No advisory opinion issued by this Committee shall be construed as an Order of the Court. However, nothing in this section shall be deemed to restrict or in any manner inhibit the Committee from commencing such legal action as an arm of state government as it deems proper, to enjoin or restrain an activity or course of conduct deemed by a majority of a quorum of the Committee to be unauthorized practice of law within the statutes and laws of this state.
