Statement from Justice Karen R. Baker on the Passing of Retired Chief Justice Jim Hannah

Upon learning of the death of Retired Chief Justice James Hannah, I wish to recognize his many years of public service. One of his proudest accomplishments was his role in establishing a program that encouraged judges and lawyers to participate in educating the public, particularly Arkansas's school children, regarding the role of the judicial branch of government. This investment in our children's education is a legacy that will continue to benefit Arkansans for many years to come. My sympathy goes out to the Hannah family during this difficult time.
