Supreme Court Reappoints Three to Committee on Security and Emergency Preparedness

Lawrence County Sheriff Jody Dotson; Lieutenant Norman Hale, White County Sheriff's Dept.; and Larry Crane, Pulaski County Circuit Clerk, were reappointed by Supreme Court per curiam Oct. 3 to three-year terms on the Supreme Court's Committee on Security and Emergency Preparedness. The terms will expire Sept. 30, 2016.

The Arkansas Supreme Court Committee on Security and Emergency Preparedness was established by the Supreme Court for the purpose of recommending and evaluating uniform state policies on court security and emergency preparedness and assisting local courts in drafting and implementing local plans. It consists of 17 voting members, 15 of whom are appointed by the Supreme Court and one each by the Speaker of the Arkansas House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Arkansas Senate from their respective chambers.

The Court also thanked for their service Johnson County Judge Mike Jacobs; David Maxwell, Director of Arkansas Department of Emergency Management; and Sebastian County District Court Judge David Saxon, whose terms expired. Jim Johnson, Dallas County Office of Emergency Management Coordinator also resigned from the committee. The Court expressed gratitude for his service.

Justice Cliff Hoofman serves as the Supreme Court's liaison to the committee.
