The Arkansas Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission is accepting grant applications for projects promoting or furthering the use of alternative dispute resolution in Arkansas. Funding is provided by a state appropriation totaling $25,000 annually.

The Commission has determined these funds may be used for programs including, but not limited to, the following:

1. District, Circuit, and Appellate Court ADR Programs
2. School Conflict Resolution Programs
3. General Community ADR Programs
4. Mediation Education and Training
5. Other Programs promoting/using ADR

For the 2015-16 grant cycle, the Commission is primarily interested in funding one-time or short term projects, rather than on-going programs or projects.

Eligible recipients include courts, state and local government agencies, educational institutions, or non-profit agencies using or promoting ADR for the benefit of the general public.

This information is being disbursed statewide to judges, mediators, state agencies, and schools. We encourage you to work in partnership with others from your community to apply for an ADR grant.

Grant applications are available online at <https://courts.arkansas.gov/adr/> or by calling (501) 682-9400.

Grant application deadline is October 12th no later than 4:00 p.m.
