DEFENSE-RELATED DISPOSITION SHEET
STATE OF ARKANSAS
CIRCUIT COURT: CRIMINAL

Instructions

The prosecuting attorney shall complete this disposition information. This form is to be used only for criminal proceedings in which every charge is dismissed, nolle processed, transferred, or in which the defendant is acquitted. If there was a commitment to the Arkansas Department of Correction, probation, suspended imposition of sentence, commitment to Arkansas Community Correction or a county jail, a fine, restitution, or court costs on any charge then a Sentencing Order should be completed instead of this form.

1. Complete the docket number, case styling (the full name of the defendant), and the defendant's driver's license or state ID number.
2. Complete the date the information was filed, the arrest tracking number (ATN) and the arrest date. If no arrest was made, write "N/A".
3. Indicate the trial type. Indicate jury trial if a jury was sworn, regardless of whether a verdict was reached. Indicate bench trial if evidence was introduced, regardless of whether a judgment was reached.
4. If the case was consolidated into another case, complete the new case number. If all charges were consolidated, skip the table of charges and go to the interpreter question.
5. Provide the manner of disposition for each charge.
6. Indicate whether an interpreter was used in the case. If so, indicate for whom and what language.
7. Indicate whether any party was pro se (self-represented) at any point in the case after the first appearance.
8. Indicate if this person completed a specialty court program, such as drug court or veterans' court.
9. Complete the name and bar number of the attorney completing the form.
10. Include the judge's signature.
