DISPOSITION SHEET
STATE OF ARKANSAS
CIRCUIT COURT: DOMESTIC RELATIONS

The Domestic Relations reporting form and the information contained herein is intended for statistical purposes only. It shall not be admissible as evidence in any court proceeding or replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings, orders, or other papers as required by law or Supreme Court Rule. The disposition form shall be completed and submitted by the attorney filing the initial pleading or other appropriate official as designated by the trial court. This form shall be filed with the court clerk.

1. On the first line, include the case number and the case styling.
2. Select the trial type. Non-trial types include any type of disposition that does not involve a bench trial or a jury trial. Examples include dismissals, default judgments, and settlements.
3. Enter the disposition date and whether a money judgment was entered.
4. Choose the appropriate manner of disposition.
5. Answer whether an interpreter was used for the case and, if so, for whom and what language.
6. Answer whether any party was self-represented (pro se) for any portion of the case.
7. If this was an annulment or divorce case, indicate the date of the marriage and whether there are children born of the marriage.
8. Public Law 104-193 requires collection of certain information in cases where custody decisions are made or support is ordered. Answer the questions regarding custody, child support, and spousal support. If any of the parties has an order of protection, check the box for who has the order. Check n/a if any of these questions do not apply.
